

GRIEF, CRISIS & TRAUMA TRAINING

DR. H. NORMAN WRIGHT

EVENT DESCRIPTION

You've dealt with crisis in your community and ministries. You may have been called to console grieving parents, spouses, clients, and patients. How do you prepare to help in these situations? How can you be proactive and effective in times of loss and crisis?

- Various types of human losses and their impact
- Causes, symptoms, and distinctions between loss, crisis, and trauma
- Effect of childhood and secondary losses in the recovery process
- Impact of trauma on the brain
- A biblical response to loss and crisis
- Practical steps to help a person recover
- Helpful resources, books, CDs, DVDs, etc.

This seminar is for anyone interested in developing and increasing their skills in grief, crisis, and trauma counseling (pregnancy center staff, pastors, ministry leaders, counselors, teachers).

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Dr. H. Norman Wright leverages his years of experience as a Marriage, Family, and Child Therapist and professor to equip others with methods for managing grief, crisis, and trauma. He has provided assistance for victims and their family members who experienced loss and trauma after 9/11, Hurricane Katrina, as well as the Colorado Springs and Las Vegas shootings.

Norm has conducted training for everything from Health Departments to Marriage Retreats, from Hospitals to the Counselor Association of America - he's got experience with it all. He is the author of over seventy books including Experiencing Grief, The New Guide to Crisis and Trauma Counseling, and Recovering From the Losses of Life.
